The Marin Justice Center is a collaboration of agencies who strive to provide seamless, effective, and coordinated legal and advocacy services for the residents of Marin County.

For leasing information contact:
Mike Cosby,
Manager of Nonprofit Centers
Marin Community Foundation
415.464.2521
Email: mcosby@marincf.org

Major funding provided by

Legal and Advocacy Organizations Working Together

If you're interested in supporting the Marin Justice Center contact:
Brian Van Weele,
Director of Philanthropic Planning
Marin Community Foundation
415.464.2515
Email: bvanweele@marincf.org
Our mission
The Marin Justice Center is a collaboration of organizations dedicated to the delivery of quality legal and advocacy services for all in a coordinated and effective way.

We are committed to:
• Collaborative and interactive efforts in the provision of quality services to our clients
• Streamlined access to services
• Minimizing duplication of services among providers
• Ongoing assessment and development to address the needs of our clients
• Ongoing evaluation and improvement of our programs, interactions, and practices
• Supporting the productivity and viability of our collaboration partners
• Utilizing our collective resources for the betterment of our clients

Marin Justice Center participating members
• Asian Advocacy Project
• Bay Area Legal Aid
• Fair Housing of Marin
• Family & Children’s Law Center
• Grassroots Leadership Network
• Lawyer Referral Services of Marin County Bar Association
• Legal Aid of Marin
• Legal Self Help Services
• Marin Advocates for Children
• Marin Family Action
• Spectrum LGBT Center

Marin Justice Center affiliates
• Canal Alliance
• Marin County District Attorney Consumer Protection unit

Participating Member Agency Descriptions
Asian Advocacy Project helps Southeast Asian immigrants and refugees become self-sufficient through a range of services, including family asset building, ESL, employment, immigration, community, health education, and advocacy. 30 N. San Pedro Road, Suite 290 415-491-9677 www.camarin.org/asian.html

Bay Area Legal Aid provides free legal assistance to low income persons in Social Security, Disability Benefits, SSI, General Assistance, CalWORKS, Food Stamps, CAPI, Medi-Cal, Medicare, Healthy Families, and In-Home Support Services. 30 N. San Pedro Road, Suite 170 415-479-8224 www.baylegal.org

Fair Housing of Marin provides education seminars to housing providers and tenants, housing counseling, investigation, referral, mediation, and legal help for individuals facing housing discrimination based on race, religion, gender, national origin, families with children, disability, age, marital status, and sexual orientation. FHOM offers foreclosure counseling and assistance with loan modifications. 615 B Street, San Rafael 415-457-5025 www.fairhousingmarin.com

Family & Children’s Law Center provides low cost (sliding scale) legal advice and representation in family law matters, including domestic violence, divorce, paternity, child custody, and support. 30 N. San Pedro Road, Suite 245 415-492-9230 www.faclc.org

Grassroots Leadership Network mobilizes organizations to collaborate in advancing public policies that promote equitable communities. They provide community education for voter registration, train community leaders, and sponsor special events. 30 N. San Pedro Road, Suite 290 415-491-4366 www.maringrassroots.org

Legal Aid of Marin provides legal representation, as well as community education, to low-income and older adult Marin residents, particularly those with problems related to housing, employment, consumer issues, and civil rights. 30 N. San Pedro Road, Suite 220 415-492-0230 ext.0 www.legalaidmarin.org

Legal Self Help Services assists individuals to prepare their own legal forms and provides information to self-represented litigants on how to present their case in court. Primary areas of legal assistance include family law, small claims, guardianships, landord/tenant disputes, and restraining orders. 3501 Civic Center Drive, #244, San Rafael 415-444-7130 marincourt.org/legal_self_help_services.htm

Marin County Bar Association’s Lawyer Referral Services is a public service for those who need a lawyer’s advice. They schedule a half-hour consultation for a $50 fee with an attorney qualified to meet your specific legal needs. 30 N. San Pedro Road, Suite 140 415-499-1813 www.marinbar.org

Marin Family Action advocates for affordable housing, prevention of foreclosures, and assists clients with financial education workshops and credit repair. 30 N. San Pedro Road, Suite 130 415-444-0915 www.marinfamilyaction.org

Spectrum LGBT Center provides education, advocacy, and special events to promote acceptance, understanding, and full inclusion throughout the North Bay for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people of all ages. 30 N. San Pedro Road, Suite 160 415-472-1945 www.spectrumlgbtcenter.org

Affiliate Member Agency Descriptions
Canal Alliance provides immigration education and legal services, including work permits, permanent residency, asylum, status for domestic violence survivors, and citizenship. Services are provided for a low fee or at no cost. 91 Larkspur Street, San Rafael 415-454-2640 www.canalalliance.org

Marin County District Attorney Consumer Protection Unit provides information and free mediation of consumer-business, neighborhood, and landlord-tenant matters. The Unit also reviews complaints concerning unlawful business practices and advertising. 3501 Civic Center Drive, #130, San Rafael 415.499.6495 or 415-499-7454 or 415-499-6188 (Spanish) www.co.marin.ca.us/da