FALL 2019
MILL VALLEY PUBLIC LIBRARY
AFTER HOURS
Co-Owner Andrew Hayman presents the world premiere of Dying to Talk, featuring New York Times bestselling author Dena Raizman. She will be in conversation with Dr. Dawn Gross while discussing their latest collaboration on Elderhood: Redefining Aging, Immigrants Residing in Marin County. The event features music by live band Oblivious, storytelling, and a conversation with Guests of Honor, Marvin Minsky and Margaret Gibson. With Lisa Rappoport and Pádraig Ó Tuama.

*Registration required Fri. 12/6 · 7:00pm

Marin Poetry Center presents an evening of poetry, music, and celebration in honor of the Marin Poetry Center Anthology, with the theme of “The Wild.”

*Registration required Wed. 9/11 · 7:00pm

Join the Mill Valley Library for a celebration of James Tissot: The Last Quarter Century. Docent Maureen O’Brien discusses the Legion of Honor exhibition on the celebrated French artist Tissot, whose ebullient pictures reveal rich and complex emotions in the making of the Impressionist Revolution. This presentation is part of an exhibition taking place in San Francisco and Paris.

*Registration recommended Wed. 11/12 · 7:00pm

Join us for an engaging Friday Film Forum event as the Throckmorton Theatre presents the Docentomicon: A True Documentary. This feature film explores the behind-the-scenes world of docents, their role in preserving and encouraging the arts and culture, and the impact they have on their communities, families, and themselves.

*Registration recommended Fri. 9/9 · 7:00pm

From the Tinsley Room to the Creekside Room, join the Mill Valley Library for a series of informative and entertaining Mac classes. Choose from a variety of classes, from basics to advanced topics.

*Registration required Wednesdays · 10:30am

READERS WANTED: Come and read while sharing your story with your local community. Local readers are encouraged to attend drop-in workshops for one-on-one assistance. Takes place on alternate Sundays. Starts 9/8. See website for details.

*Registration recommended Wednesdays · 10:30am

Writing Workshops

Writing Workshop: Fiction | Tues. 9/24 · 7:00pm
Writing Workshop: Poetry | Thurs. 9/26 · 7:00pm
Writing Workshop: Nonfiction | Mon. 10/14 · 7:00pm
Writing Workshop: Young Adult Fiction | Wed. 10/30 · 7:00pm

*Registration required

FREE LITERARY EVENTS:

Archives Exhibit: Parks & Recreation | Full-color Gallery

Mill Valley has inherited a beautiful parcel of land from the city of San Francisco, and the Mill Valley Library has created an exhibit that explores the history of the park, its development, and its impact on the Mill Valley community.

*Registration recommended

FEATURED
NOTEWORTHY
Archives Exhibit: Parks & Recreation | Full-color Gallery

Mill Valley has inherited a beautiful parcel of land from the city of San Francisco, and the Mill Valley Library has created an exhibit that explores the history of the park, its development, and its impact on the Mill Valley community.

*Registration recommended

FEATURED
NOTEWORTHY
Archives Exhibit: Parks & Recreation | Full-color Gallery

Mill Valley has inherited a beautiful parcel of land from the city of San Francisco, and the Mill Valley Library has created an exhibit that explores the history of the park, its development, and its impact on the Mill Valley community.

*Registration recommended

FEATURED
NOTEWORTHY
Archives Exhibit: Parks & Recreation | Full-color Gallery

Mill Valley has inherited a beautiful parcel of land from the city of San Francisco, and the Mill Valley Library has created an exhibit that explores the history of the park, its development, and its impact on the Mill Valley community.

*Registration recommended

FEATURED
NOTEWORTHY