The Mill Valley Municipal Code outlines the Planning Commission's duties and responsibilities as follows:

2.08.140 Planning Commission.

A. Establishment. The Commission shall consist of five residents of the City of Mill Valley appointed by the City Council. In order to include persons with design expertise on the Commission, at least two members of the Commission shall be licensed architects, architects-in-training, licensed landscape architects, landscape architects-in-training, or urban planners.

B. Duties and Responsibilities. The Planning Commission shall have the power, and it shall be the duty and responsibility of the Commission to develop and maintain a General Plan, develop such ordinances as may be necessary or desirable to implement the City General Plan, review and act on zoning and subdivision entitlements for consistency with General Plan policies and this Code, periodically review the Capital Improvement Program, and perform such other functions as the City Council may request. In performing its duties, the Planning Commission shall be governed by the provisions of the Subdivision Map Act and the Planning, Zoning and Development Laws of the State of California and applicable provisions of other state laws and this Code. (Ord. 1084 § 8, January 17, 1989; Ord. 1123 § 3, August 2, 1993; Ord. 1184, January 21, 2003)
